

European Society for Women in Theological Research

RESEARCHING GENDER IN THEOLOGY & RELIGIOUS STUDIES, UK: AN AUDIT

A networking day
offered by the UK branch of ESWTR
for women scholars
to share current research work in progress and strategies for promoting women researchers
in Theology & Religious Studies

Saturday 27 September 2014

10.00 a.m. til 4.00 p.m.

at the Queen's Foundation for Ecumenical Theological Education
Birmingham
Somerset Rd, Birmingham, West Midlands B15 2QH

Facilitated by Dr Jenny Dagers, Liverpool Hope University
and
Dr Nicola Slee, the Queen's Foundation, Birmingham

Cost: £15 waged, £10 unwaged

Short papers (2,000 words) OR a 20 minute slot to talk about work in progress, proposed research, or strategies for women's academic careers

*Please email offers of contributions to Jenny and Nicola at daggerj@hope.ac.uk and sleen@queens.ac.uk
by Sunday, 14th September

Getting to Queen's is easy by car or train. The nearest station is University, from which Queen's is a 10 minute walk. Trains go from New Street every 15 minutes, to Redditch or Longbridge, usually from platform 11. University is 10 minutes from New Street. By car, Queen's is adjacent to the university and not far off the A38. There is parking on Somerset and Farquhar Roads.

For further information about booking, please contact Jenny or Nicola.