

Sermon Studies (<http://mds.marshall.edu/sermonstudies/>) is a new online, open-access journal sponsored by Marshall University. The editors are interested in articles on all aspects of Abrahamic (Jewish, Christian, or Islamic) preaching from a variety of disciplinary perspectives. Articles should be between 8,000 and 10,000 words and formatted in accordance with The Chicago Manual of Style.

Sermon Studies publishes on a "rolling" basis. Manuscripts are accepted throughout the year, and articles are published as soon as final copyediting is complete. All submissions are peer-reviewed and authors retain copyright, with the option of publishing under a Creative Commons license.
