

Dear friends,

I have the pleasure to invite you to the conference titled "Magic. Construction and Perception of the Magic World from Antiquity to Our Times", which will be held in Velletri (Rome) from June 14 to June 18 2016, at the premises of "Pegaso" Telematic University (Palazzo Romani, corso della Repubblica 253).

The initiative is part of the second edition of the "Castelli Romani. Myth, Religions and Wine and Cuisine Traditions" festival, which will consist in cultural and party evenings, with shows and guided visits to the museums and monuments of Albano Laziale, Artena, Castel Gandolfo, Lanuvio and Lariano.

Below you can find the conference programme and useful links to get more information.

Accommodation: those people interested in the conference who need accommodation can reserve rooms at a discounted price at Hotel Villa Robinia, viale Fratelli Rosselli 9, Genzano di Roma (bed and breakfast € 20,00 a day). In order to obtain the discount it's necessary to make a reservation by contacting Maria Paola De Marchis (mariapaolademarchis@gmail.com).

Train and shuttle service: Velletri is easily reachable by train (Roma Termini-Velletri line).

There will be a free shuttle service from the Hotel Villa Robinia to the conference premises.

The service will have to be reserved at least one day in advance, by contacting Maria Paola De Marchis (mariapaolademarchis@gmail.com).
