

Aston University's Centre for Critical Inquiry into Society and Culture (CCISC) invites you to an inter-disciplinary symposium

Contemporary Sikhism

Friday 9th March 2018, 1:15—5pm, Aston University, Birmingham

Keynote speakers

Dr Opinderjit Kaur Takhar (University of Wolverhampton). Sikhi & the Sikhs: Responses to challenges and issues in contemporary British society

Dr Jasjit Singh (University of Leeds). The idea, context, framing & realities of 'Sikh radicalisation' In Britain

Panel discussion of Sikhism, gender & sexuality

With Dr Jagbir Jhutti Johal (University of Birmingham) & Mandeep Sehmi (Coventry University)

The event is free with tea, coffee & cake provided. Academics, students, practitioners & members of the public are welcome. Places are limited - to book contact lss_researchsupport@aston.ac.uk