The Central and Eastern European Network
for the Academic Study of Western Esotericism, associated with ESSWE
(The European Society for the Study of Western Esotericism) calls for papers for its third international colloquium:

ESOTERICISM-INSPIRED ARTISTIC VISIONS IN CENTRAL- AND EASTERN-EUROPE

The event will be hosted by The Faculty of Arts at the University of Szeged (The Research Group for Cultural Iconology and Semiography in cooperation with the Departments of Religious Studies, Comparative Literature, and Visual Studies).

Papers (30 minutes' slots including discussion) are expected to investigate the inspiration of Western Esotericism on the artistic cultural representations (literature, visual arts, theatre, film) of the Central- and Eastern European regions throughout the centuries.

The conference will be taking place on November 16-17, 2018 (Friday-Saturday, arrival the previous night, departure the next day).

Paper proposals (author's name and affiliation, proposed title and a 300 word abstract) should be sent to Dr. Róbert Péter CEENASWE2018@gmail.com by September 1, 2018.

For ESSWE members there is no registration fee, for non-ESSWE members registration is 40 Euros.
