

Following our very successful one-day conference on 'Leadership, Authority and Representation in British Muslim Communities' at Cardiff University last month, we are now actively seeking articles for a Special Issue of the international peer-review journal Religions on the same conference theme. This edition of the journal is being co-edited by Professor Sophie Gilliat-Ray and Dr Riyaz Timol.

We are inviting articles of 5,000-8,000 words (including all references and footnotes) by 25th April, though there may be scope to extend that deadline by a few weeks (only) if this makes the difference in terms of potential contributions.

Please don't hesitate to contact us if you would like further information. We very much hope you will consider the submission of a paper. Please do circulate to your networks.
