

Save the Date!

This is to let you know that Inform's Winter/Spring Seminar will be on the theme of Immortality as expressed within minority religions. The seminar will take place on Saturday 1 February 2020 in Bush House, from 9.30am. It is offered in association with Inform Research Fellow Dr Suzanne Newcombe's project on Yoga and Alchemy in South Asia and in collaboration with the Theology and Religious Studies department at King's College London.

Information on speakers and a booking form will be posted on our website before Christmas.