

Religion and Politics

Seminar Series, 2020-21

Department of Theology and Religious Studies,
University of Chester

Speakers

14 October 2020

Ruth Jackson Ravenscroft (University of Cambridge)

Friedrich Schleiermacher's use of anonymity as a literary strategy and social practice, and some political and theological implications

11 November 2020

Kjetil Fretheim (Norwegian School of Theology)

Biblical witness or cultural betrayal? Church, migration and populism in Norway

9 December 2020

Erica Baffelli (University of Manchester)

"I would do it all again": former members' experience in Aum Shinrikyō

20 January 2021

Amin El Yousfi (University of Chester)

God and the Bureaucratisation of Mosques

24 February 2021

Hilary Marlow (University of Cambridge)

"As I Looked": Visionary Experiences, Political Expectations and Conceptions of Place in the Book of Ezekiel

17 March 2021

Hannah Ewence (University of Chester)

Architecture and Assimilation: Anglo-Jews, Alien Jews and the Politics of the Fin de Siècle Synagogue

All seminars are on Wednesdays, 16.00 – 17.30 and will be held online on Microsoft Teams.

Guests can register, and gain access, by emailing TRS@chester.ac.uk

Department of Theology and Religious Studies

