

Religious Studies at the Open University is pleased to invite proposals for full- and part-time PhD research – potentially with funding through the Open-Oxford-Cambridge AHRC Doctoral Training Programme (OOC DTP). Studentships are available for UK and international students. Please check our research areas to see what subject areas we can supervise. Initial enquiries can be sent to Prof Graham Harvey at FASS-ReligiousStudies-Enquiries@open.ac.uk. We strongly encourage potential applicants to discuss draft proposals with us as soon as possible. We will gladly consider proposals from people able to fund research themselves or from other sources.

The deadline for final applications is noon on 11 January 2022. There is an OU Application Form as well as one (asking for similar information) for applications to OOC DTP. The OU form requires a tick in a box in order for an applicant to be considered for an OOC DTP studentship. That is, both forms need to be completed by those seeking funding. For further information, see PhD study at the OU.
